MEYER CAPITAL MANAGEMENT'S TIM MEYER SELECTED AS JUDGE FOR BBB'S 2009 TORCH AWARDS

(Cincinnati: August 19, 2009) – Timothy Meyer, President and Chief Investment Officer for Meyer Capital Management, Inc., has been selected as one of four judges for the Cincinnati Better Business Bureau's 2009 Torch Award for Marketplace Ethics, to be announced October 22 at Music Hall.

Recognized as the premier event to promote integrity, trust and honest business in Greater Cincinnati, the annual Torch Awards honor those businesses and charitable organizations that are fully committed to maintaining the highest standards of marketplace ethics and integrity. Torch Award finalists and recipients are chosen by a distinguished panel of independent judges, who evaluate applications based on eight judging criteria established by the Council of Better Business Bureaus and the International Torch Award Program.

Meyer Capital Management, located in Anderson Township, is a 2004 Torch Award winner.

"Client relationships built on trust and integrity make all the difference," Tim Meyer explained. "The Torch Award gives consumers an objective, credible way to identify ethical companies. I am proud and honored to serve as a judge for the 2009 awards."

Meyer Capital Management is a full-service, fee-only Registered Investment Advisor for private, non-institutional clients in the Cincinnati area. Tim Meyer founded the company in 1996. He holds a B.S. degree in Finance with a concentration in Investment Theory and Portfolio Management from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He also holds an MBA degree from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Tim is a member of the CFA Institute and the Cincinnati Society of Financial Analysts.

A resident of Wyoming, Tim's volunteer and community service involvement has included the Wyoming City School Foundation (Past President & Board Member), Wyoming City School District (Member, Blue Ribbon Finance Committee), Anderson Area Chamber of Commerce (Chair, Finance Committee), P&G Alumni Network (Cincinnati Chapter, Treasurer) and Inner City Youth Opportunities (Board Member).
